Could you help by sponsoring one of my Friends?

This is one of my friends. His name is Swearing Charlie. He was rescued from a working men`s club in London, which is where he learned his colourful language! As you can see, he still plucks himself, but he is a much more happier and contented bird now.

There are lots more birds inside – Take a look. Or go to our website, where you can see and read in more detail about all my friends backgrounds and how SPR has helped us.
